Honorable Allen W. Dulles
The Director
Central Intelligence Agency
2430 E Street, N. W.
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear Mr. Dulles:

I would like to call your attention to the excellent assistance members of the Basic Intelligence Division, Central Intelligence Agency, have provided the Intelligence staff of the Transportation Corps in connection with the National Intelligence Survey program over the past year. They have given sound guidance and extended to us a high level of cooperation which is so important to an intelligence effort of this character.

I would like to take this opportunity of expressing my gratitude and sincere appreciation for the valuable contributions your organization has rendered. The following individuals have been particularly helpful in this respect:
